To Whom It May Concern:

A little over a year ago, Curtis Brooks accepted me into his training program with ForeclosuresDaily.com. Thanks to Curtis's specific, real world advice and ForeclosuresDaily.com, I have now purchased over 14 properties in 14 months, re-selling some of the houses to generate in excess of $100,000 profit, and keeping the rest to start my portfolio of upper-end, middle class rental homes that will serve as the basis for my retirement.

Curtis' techniques have allowed me to purchase houses using none of my own credit, and with very little cash down. They have also showed me how to buy houses at 70 percent of their market value (or less).

Curtis's training combines extensive experience with plain English instructions, and shows you how to take each step necessary on the path to success. If it weren't for Curtis, I'd still be wandering in seminar land.

Sincerely,
Mark Wilson

"I logged on to foreclosuresdaily.com and identified my target properties. I created a printout of the information, which I used to send out my first set of post-card mailers. And, surprise! I got a call two days later from a motivated seller!... I was told that it takes lots of repeated attempts to get a deal, so I was hardly prepared to handle a sale so quickly. I didn't even have a set of contracts downloaded! After a couple of calls to discount two liens on the property, the deal was closed within about 10 days. We shared a $5,000 assignment fee, which represented 10% of the total equity, and I received my $2,500 check from the title company this week! This may not be the largest sum of money made this year, but it certainly was a fast and fun first deal!"
